

Text to Self (T-S) Connections

You are connecting the story to your own life, experiences, and feelings.

This reminds me of...

I understand how the character feels because...

The setting makes me think about another place...

I experienced this myself...